TROOPS PREPARE TO LEAVE FOR HOME

Camp Sale, at Culpeper, Will Soon Be Only a Memory.

EFFECTS HAVE BEEN GOOD

Men Are Well-Seasoned and Versed in Knowledge of Military Manoeuvres.

Camp Sale, Culpeper, Va., August 11. The hot sun of to-day was tempered with a most delightful breeze, which permitted the manoeuvres with comfort. Outpost, advance and rear guard was the schedule of the forenoon, while the exercises of the evening were regimental drills in close order. The regiment at drill was again commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel B. W. Salomonsky, the battalions being commanded respectively by Major Goodwyn, Epps and Curtis.

The Fourth is proving itself to be the popular regiment of the encampment. Luncheon and dinner parties are almost of daily occurrence, and to-night the regiment gave a complimentary dance at the armory, to the women of Culpeper. Like the other regiments, the Fourth shows considerable improvement since coming into camp, and the men will return to home stations seasoned and well drilled. Preparation for the homeward movement of troops began to-day. Surplus tentage is being struck, packed and placed aboard the cars. By to-morrow night most of the equipage will have been placed aboard the cars, and by 10 o'clock Sunday morning the last of the troops to encamp at Camp Sale will be speeding homeward.

This is Culpeper's first experience with encampments, and so soldiers have been placed on all sides are being made.

A complimentary dinner was given to-day by the colonel of the regiment and his staff to Mrs. M. A. Samuelson,

News of Petersburg.

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
105 North Sycamore Street,
Petersburg, Va., August 11.

Further reports as to crop damages in Dinwiddie and Brunswick counties caused by the hailstorm of Thursday afternoon show the destruction to have been more widespread than at first stated. One of the heaviest sufferers was J. B. Knott, an extensive grower of bright tobacco, in Dinwiddie. His large crop was almost entirely destroyed. Mr. Knott has shipped most of his bright tobacco to the North Carolina markets. P. J. Stone, in Brunswick county, had 65,000 hills of tobacco ruined. Later reports will probably give much additional damage, as the storm seems to have extended over a wide section. Much damage was also done to the cotton crop in Brunswick.

Not Yet Quizzed.

The candidates for the State Senate and House of Delegates in this city, and so far as known, in the vicinity, have not yet received questions from the Anti-Saloon League relative to their status on temperance and proposed legislation as to prohibition.

On August 7 at a meeting of representatives from different sections of Dinwiddie county, it was decided to call a mass-meeting of the voters of the county to be held on Monday, August 13, at the courthouse, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various county offices. The movement is said to be in the nature of a protest against Democratic rule in the county. A circular call for the mass-meeting has been issued, and the signers are J. T. Kline, J. E. Talley, W. L. Peabody, B. H. Barrow, John T. Thrift, A. Z. Lewis, W. W. Talley, R. B. Shell, A. G. Butterworth and R. H. Lewis, well-known citizens, but who have not, it is said, been in close affiliation with the Democratic party for some time. It is not thought that the movement will amount to much. The candidates to be nominated at the Democratic primary on September 7 will be elected by a large majority.

Remarkable Christmas Present

Among the curious Christmas presents of this year will be one for a man of national reputation, which has been all year in the making.

Way last January the present was accepted upon, and a friend of the prominent gentleman requested the Burrelle Press Clipping Bureau, of New York, to watch every paper in America and to take up every item which appeared concerning the man.

The clipping bureau people followed instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this special man.

The history ends just after election, and the 20,512 newspaper items found include everything from a three-line editorial mention to full-page illustrated stories. These have been mounted on 3,200 great sheets of Irish linen paper and bound into three massive volumes.

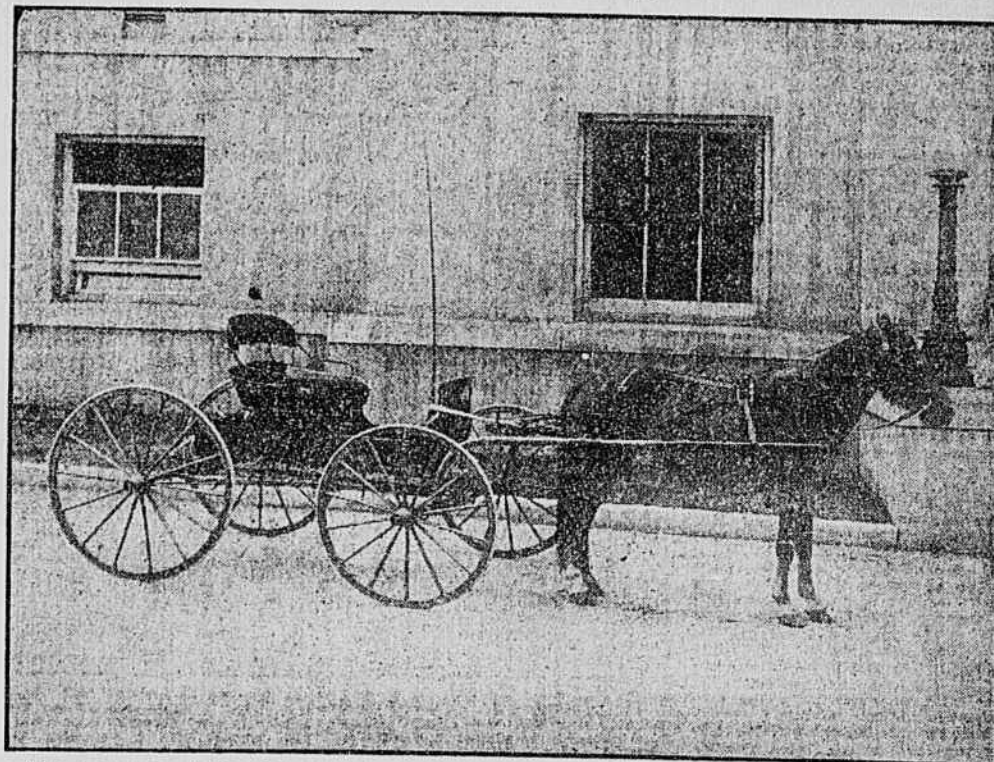

At the head of each item is the name and date of paper clipped from, this information having been put in with a book typewriter. The words thus inserted amount to 153,252.

In actual time, a very strict record of which has been kept, the work has required sixty-four working days throughout the year, and has kept in employment during that time thirty people, as readers, clippers, sorters, mounters and binders. Every newspaper of importance is represented.

This is merely a specimen of some of the unique orders which got into the Burrelle Bureau, for the extent to which clippings are used by individuals and by business concerns seems to be remarkable.

There are many people in private as well as in public life who need press clippings and don't know it. It might be well for them to look up this man Burrelle, who is said to be so well known that a letter simply addressed "Burrelle, New York," will reach him with no delay.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., August 11.—Harry V. Anderson, aged twenty-five years, bookkeeper for a clothing firm here, was instantly killed Thursday evening by the accidental discharge of a shotgun at Arlington, Nelson county, where he was visiting. J. H. Hamersley, his host, had been hunting, and laid his gun on the lawn. Anderson picked it up to show some women how to handle it. The trigger struck a chair and the gun was discharged, the load entering under the chin. He is survived by his parents, six sisters and two brothers.

CAMP SALE STRUCK BY FURIOUS STORM

Every Tent of Brigade and Regimental Staff Is Leveled to the Ground.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Camp Sale, Culpeper, Va., August 11.—A hurricane struck Camp Sale at 10 o'clock to-night, leaving havoc in its wake. Clouds began to gather shortly after sundown, giving warning of the pending storm. Rain began to fall and the wind increased in velocity until it reached about sixty miles. The first tent to be blown down was that of Major Allen Potts, to be shortly followed by that of brigade headquarters. Colonel Nottingham's quarters soon followed, and before the storm's fury abated every tent of the brigade and regimental staff was laid spread on the ground, with its contents soaked by the torrential rain that accompanied the blow.

According to estimate, thirty tents, including those of the hospital corps, were leveled to the ground. While all suffered more or less, no one was injured.

General Vaughan's automobile, used in conveying officers to a German given by the regiment in Culpeper, was wrecked during the storm by skidding into a post. None of the occupants was injured.

The storm, after thirty minutes' duration, abated, leaving a clear sky and only the dilapidated appearance of beautiful Camp Sale as a reminder of its fury.

CONFIDENT THAT OFFICE WILL BE ESTABLISHED

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., August 11.—In response to the proposition to establish a separate post-office for Bristol, Va., from that in Tennessee, two inspectors from the Post-Office Department are here with a view to making recommendations and inquiring into available sites. The friends of Sloop are confident that the office will be established, despite the protest of a majority of the business men.

New Paper for Harrisonburg. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va., August 11.—Harrisonburg is to have a third daily newspaper. The Keesell faction of the Democratic party here expects to start an independent Democratic paper within six weeks. H. W. Bertram, president of the new corporation, stated that the name, editor and manager of the paper had not yet been decided upon, but that the paper doubtless would be in full blast long before the fall election.

This new paper is the outcome of the bitter factional fight that has been raging inside of the Democratic party.
